LAMARUNIVERSITY MANUAL OF ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

SECTION: Campus Operations

AREA: EHS & Risk Management

University Insurance

MAPR02.04.10

I. POLICY

A. The Lamar University (LU) Office of Environmental Health & Safety (EHS) & Risk Management is authorized to purchase, on behalf of the niwersity, property, liability, and other newmenefit insurance for general and specific risks. These insurance purchases are based on both an institutional and Texas State University System (TSUS) assessment of the potential for losses and the cost to insure against a loss.

II. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

- A. This policy falls under the authority of the following rules, regulation laws, and statutes, including but not limited to the TSUS Rules and Regulation lapter III, Subapagraph 6.1, Insurance Coverage; that identification and mitigation of insurable risks occur in an efficient, cost-effective manner and that the purchase of insurance is coordinated through the Office of EHS & Risk Management
- C. Individual units are prohibited from using University funds to purchase separate insurance policies. If a pecificinsurance coverage is required for an activity or sponsored project, the Office of EHS & Risk Management will work with the unit to secure the needed insurance coverage.
- D. Employee personal property is not insurfined the University insurance program

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Unit. Internal department, office, or division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University. Examples: Division ecognized by Uas a formally organized structure or "unit" within the University.

IV. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. TheLUOffice of EHS & Risk Management cognizes its role of stewardship of the assets of the University both tangible and intagrible. The Office of EHS & Risk Management interprets its staff. With regard to insurance, the Office of EHS & Risk Management has the following objectives:

- 1. To provide oversight over all insurance and risk financing programs.
- 2. To assure damage protection for University assets.
- 3. To give direction for the control and mitigation of risks associated with various activities.
- To direct hazard identification anathalysis.
- 5. To oversee allocation of insurance premiums and claim costs.
- 6. To assist with annual inspection by insurance carriers of facilities.
- 7. To record certificates of insurance to meet contractual obligations
- B. LU units will be directly charged for:
 - 1. Deductibles associated with certain types of insurable losses.
 - 2. Premiums for insurance policies purchased to cover specific activities or sponsored projects.
- C. LU unitsmust notify the LUOffice of EHS & Risk Management within 12 hours of any property damageto or theft of University property. Departments are responsible for cooperating in the settlement of claims.
- D. LU expects all faculty, staff, and students conduct activities with the highest sense of responsibility for their safety, the safety of others and the protection of the assets of the University.
- E. LU faculty, staff, and students ave an obligation to report bodily injury and property damage to assure expedited notification to the propriate University insurance carrier. Failure to meet reporting obligations may result in negrayment of claim expenses.

V. VENDOR INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS

- A. Employer's Liability: $1,000,000 per accident and employee.
- B.

and review a current træl advisory for travel locations

- G. Unsponsored Outside Organization Requesting Tenant Insurance
 - All outside organizations using U facilities under a facility agreement must provide a certificate of insurance naming Lamar University Liniduty Liniduty L57006 Tw 11.04 -0 0 11.04 108 68

B. Non-LU employees hould contact the LU Office of EHS & Risk Management for information on reporting accidents or damage that may involve the University

VIII. REVIEW AND RESPONSIBILITY

Responsible arty: Chief Operations Officer

ReviewSchedule Every three years on obefore September1

IX. APPROVAL

Dr. Robert H. Wagner	05/25/2022
ChiefOperationsOfficer	Date
Dr. Jaime R. Taylor	05/26/2022
President	Date

REVISIONOG

Revision Number	Date	Description of Changes
1	05/25/2022	Versioncreated.
	05/26/2022	Version approved by President